

TEACHERS ARE APPOINTED FOR CITY SCHOOLS

OF THE NINE PRINCIPALS SELECTED FOR THE ENSUING YEAR, EIGHT ARE WOMEN AND PRACTICALLY ALL OF THE ASSISTANTS CHOSEN ARE WOMEN—SOME APPOINTMENTS YET TO BE MADE.

That the board of public instruction of Escambia county has a marked preference for women school teachers is shown by the fact that of the nine principals selected for city schools for the next school year at the meeting of the board Wednesday night, eight of them were women. Of the white schools in the city for which principals have so far been selected, Prof. W. S. Cawthon is the only male principal. He remains at the head of the Pensacola High School, where he has been for several years.

Of especial interest to their many friends in this city are the appointments of Miss Pauline Reese as principal of Grammar School No. 1 and Miss Kate Loftin as principal.

There are still a number of vacancies in the white schools of the city, while none of the negro teachers and none of the teachers for the white schools in the county outside of the city have as yet been appointed.

The teachers elected so far are as follows:

Pensacola High School—Principal, W. S. Cawthon; assistants, William Taylor, Miss Maude Suter, Miss Josie Loftin, Miss Mary M. Blitch and Miss Sarah E. Donaldson.

Grammar School No. 1—Principal, Miss Pauline Reese; assistants, Mrs. S. U. Sampey, Miss Ethel Suter, Mrs. Bertha L. Crawford, Mrs. N. D. Thomas, Miss Buda Day, Miss Kate Wentworth, Miss Ethel Clark, Miss Virginia Snyder, Miss Alice Henderson, Miss Desdemona Williams, Miss Ada White and Miss Eola Williams; Miss Emma Chandler, art teacher.

School No. 2—Principal, Mrs. E. J. Wilson; assistants, Miss Addie Trickett, Miss Evelyn Thornton, Miss Ellie G. Wentworth, Miss Maymie Freeman, Miss Maggie Ousley, Miss Minter L. Godwin, Miss Fannie Henderson.

School No. 27—Principal, Miss Kate Loftin; assistants, Miss Octavia Chaires, Miss Edith Oliver, Miss Florence R. Higgins.

School No. 35—Principal, Miss Annie E. McMillan; assistants, Miss Sadie Fell, Miss Ethel Broughton, Miss Hazel Latsinger.

School No. 40—Principal, Mrs. A. K. Suter; assistants, Miss Lucia Spencer, Miss Virginia Phillips, Miss Ollie Andrews, Miss Marion Spencer, Miss Lydia Tiffin, Mrs. Bessie Wilson, Miss Wales.

School No. 43—Principal, Mrs. Frank D. Tracy; assistants, Miss Ila Henderson, Miss Adelaide Williamson, Miss Inez Herrington.

School No. 70—Principal, Mr. A. W. McReynolds; assistant, Miss Fena Yent.

School No. 74—Principal, Mrs. S. A. Collins; assistants, Miss Eva Waters, Miss Kate Hall.

ly declined political office. He is very prominent in the Southern Presbyterian church, serving one term as moderator of the synod of Kentucky.

Coming from a family of slave holders, General Young has always been a staunch friend of the negro and much of his philanthropic work, both personal and in connection with church charity, has been devoted to this race.

A year ago, when General Young was taken to a Baltimore hospital for an operation, special prayers for his speedy recovery were offered in many of the negro churches of Louisville.

General Young resides with his wife and children in Louisville during the winter months, devoting his time to his Kentucky farms throughout the summer.

SIXTEEN THOUSAND OLD SOLDIERS MARCH IN REVIEW

Macon, Ga., May 9.—Sixteen thousand soldiers of the Old South today marched in review before 50,000 visitors from all over Dixie and brought to a close the public functions of the twenty-second annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans.

Always the spectacular feature of these meetings, the parade today was no less impressive than those of other years, although the ranks of the regiments were thinner and many who have marched before are known to have responded to their last "taps."

The broken tramp of the gray-clad warriors and the sight of bullet-torn flags made a historical pageant which called to mind the great struggle of the states, the sun of the Confederacy which rose so bright at Bull Run, attained its zenith at Chancellorsville and set in sad glory at Appomattox.

A few men from almost every one of the southern armies were present. "Boys" from the army of northern Virginia who went through the memorable campaign of Lee, Jackson and Joseph E. Johnston, those who followed the banner of Albert Sydney Johnston in the west, a few of Stirling Price's volunteers from Missouri and those who were in Texas with Kirby Smith the last to surrender.

Nearly six thousand Georgians composed the largest delegation from any one state. Probably the most interesting body of veterans was the detachment of Forrest's cavalry which headed the line of march. Accompanying it was little Nathan Bedford Forrest, grandson of the great leader of the same name, dressed in the uniform of a major general, C. S. A.

The parade, including the automobiles and carriages carrying civilians, sponsors of the reunion and members of organizations affiliated with the U. C. V., was more than a mile long and wound through sixteen blocks of the city's shaded streets.

The long walk was too much for some of the older veterans and they dropped out, being immediately cared for by ambulance corps provided by the city.

"Come in last night and fell against the piano."
"Hurt yourself?"
"No; I struck the soft pedal."

WILL CANVASS PRIMARY RETURNS

The Third congressional committee will meet in Apalachicola tomorrow and canvass the returns of the primary of April 30th, when the three candidates for congress were voted.

The committee will also make arrangements for the second primary. Chairman Frank L. Mayes of this committee left last night for Apalachicola to be present.

Pretty Mothers

Health is the foundation of all good looks. The wise woman realizes this and takes precautions to preserve her health and strength through the period of child bearing. She remains a pretty mother by avoiding as far as possible the suffering and dangers of such occasions. This every woman may do through the use of Mother's Friend, a remedy that has been so long in use, and accomplished so much good, that it is in no sense an experiment, but a preparation which always produces the best results. It is for external application and so penetrating in its nature as to thoroughly lubricate every muscle, nerve and tendon involved during the period before baby comes. It aids nature by expanding the skin and tissues, relieves tenderness and soreness, and perfectly prepares the system for natural and safe motherhood. Mother's Friend has been used and endorsed by thousands of mothers, and its use will prove a comfort and benefit to any woman in need of such a remedy. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. TWO DECISIONS RENDERED BY SUPREME COURT

PARTY OF HOLLANDERS WILL INSPECT LEON COUNTY, SEARCHING FOR LOCATION OF COLONY—OTHER TALLAHASSEE NEWS.

Special to The Journal

Tallahassee, May 9.—The supreme court has adjourned for the week after sitting two days in hearing oral arguments and filing two decisions on cases previously considered. The two cases are of some interest as each entails points of law not often brought up for decision. The first case is one of the A. C. L. railway vs. T. M. Weir, Hillsboro county, damages to an automobile by local train. The jury assessed damages at $1,000 in favor of Weir. The court reversed the verdict on the grounds that the owner of the auto was approaching the crossing at a speed of twenty miles an hour, thereby heedless of the signs at the railroad crossing, and not having his auto under full control. These facts the court considered should have been taken into consideration in fixing the damages.

The second case is one of the Florida Life Insurance Company vs. J. M. Dillon, Jackson county. The life insurance company contested payment of policy because of misstatements in the application for the policy. The grounds given by the company considered by the court in connection with the fact that the examining physician was acting as agent for the company and not the applicant figured largely in the court's opinion rendered which, affirmed judgment of the lower court, which was adverse to the life insurance company.

News was received here by wire yesterday that this afternoon J. D. Rooney, of the S. A. L. railway, would arrive here personally conducting a party of distinguished Hollanders, who are seeking a location for a colony. They will be shown the fine agricultural lands of the Tallahassee hill country.

Attorney General Trammell and State Treasurer Luning are in Jacksonville today attending the meeting of the state Democratic executive committee.

The Methodist District Conference in session here is well attended by the ministers and by delegates from the lay members. Among the lay delegates present are some of the most prominent business men of middle Florida. The program rendered yesterday afternoon and this morning was as follows:

3:30—The Conference College, Rev. S. W. Lawler.

4:00—The Woman's Missionary Work, Mrs. J. H. Perkins.

4:30—Election lay delegates to state conference. Election resulted in choosing J. H. Perkins, Monticello; B. M. Cates and G. I. Davis, Tallahassee; and R. A. Gray, Havana, as delegates, and J. Will Yon, Tallahassee, H. J. Davis, Quincy; R. T. McDavid, Hinson; and J. D. Burnett, Madison, as alternates.

Thursday morning: 8:00—Sermon, Rev. I. Ryder. 8:30—Devotional, Rev. J. B. Stewart.

9:00 to 11:00—Laymen's Missionary Movement, J. H. Perkins leader. 11:00—Sermon, Rev. F. R. Bridges. The conference will be in session until tomorrow afternoon.

Wednesday afternoon: 2:30—Devotional, Rev. J. D. Murray. 3:00—Reports of local preachers and renewal of licenses.

MEET WHERE LAWMAKERS OF 1912 HELD SESSION

By Associated Press. Chillicothe, Ohio, May 9.—Over the historic spot where 110 years ago some of Ohio's first laws were framed, the constitution makers of 1912 met today to pay tribute to their predecessors. Chillicothe was the first Buckeye capital and members of the constitutional convention came here from Columbus to draft some of the new laws where were framed the old statutes under which the state is now governed.

The room in Ross county court house where the session was held occupies the ground where the first state house stood. Many of its furnishings are scarcely less historic than its location.

The long oak table at which President Bigelow presided is the same table on which the first constitution of the state was signed. Above the table hung the big bell which swung in the tower of the first state house. It has been in the relic room of the capitol for fifty years, but was brought here today. On the walls of the court room hung pictures of the first governors and many members of the first constitutional convention. The original records of the first convention were on display.

Mr. Binks (whose invalid wife insists on boarding)—Look here, now. The Medical Record says nothing will improve a woman's health like sweeping, baking, bed-making, dish washing and polishing the silverware.

Mrs. Binks—Ha! You know very well you never got me any silver to polish. No wonder I'm sick.—New York Weekly.

Suddenly Mother Hubbard remembered. "It wouldn't be in the cupboard, anyway!" she exclaimed. "Going to the icebox she found a nice bone, but by that time the boys were kicking her dawg aroun'."—Chicago Tribune.

Young Lady—How much? Telegraph Operator—Twenty-five cents.

Young Lady—For that one word "Yes"? Telegraph Operator—Yes'm. Same price for ten words or less. You can repeat the "Yes" ten times if you wish.

Young Lady—Um—no, that would not look well. It's an answer to a proposal of marriage.—Foster in New York Weekly.

When Henry Irving was making one of his last tours of the country he found himself with an open date in Michigan. His manager wired the manager of a small opera house in a nearby place, asking if he could use Irving on the night in question. The following message came back:

"What does Irving do?" "The manager used up much expensive space on the wire explaining the leading points about Irving, and for his pains received the following reply: "Cannot use Irving in this town unless Irving can parade."—Judge.

"I thing she will make a fine wife. I have been calling on her for several months now, and nearly always find her darning one of her father's socks."

"That caught me too, until I found out that it was the same sock."—Kansas City Journal.

"You seem to be an able-bodied man. You ought to be strong enough to work."

"I know, mum. And you seem beautiful enough to go on the stage, but evidently you prefer the simple life."

After that speech he got a square meal and no reference to the woodpile.—Detroit Free Press.
